

WANT TO BECOME A BUSINESS LEADER IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

The Young Agri-Business Leaders of Houston (YALH) is an exciting group of local teens bringing money, social and health opportunities to Gulfton through their commitment to a youth-led business program.

This is a hands-on opportunity for immigrant Gulfton teens to learn the processes of an urban agriculture business. Participants will receive training on:

- Leadership Skills/Team Work and Developing Partnerships
- Effective Communication Strategies
- How to Develop a Business Plan
- Knowledge of Homegrown and Traditional Crops (Teens will: grow crops, set up farm-stands; sell their produce and manage potential profits)
- Strategies to Become a Successful Business Entrepreneur

Requirements: Teens interested in this program must be between the ages of 16-19 and live in the Gulfton-Houston area.

If you want to learn more and/or join this exciting program, please contact Program Coordinator Robert Yanez
