Off-Broadway Winter Showcase Information

Saturday, December 16, 2017

This is NOT the show order. This is a tentative list of the classes that will be in each show.

For the winter concert, only a select few classes will participate in our showcase. We have selected to do this so that our classes that are curriculum based have more time to work on strengthening and solidifying their technique during the fall semester without having to work on preparing a piece to perform. However, all of our classes will participate in our May Recital (May 12 and 13).

Tickets for each show are $8 each and will be on sale at the studio at the end of November.
