

Sermon Notes

Romans 9:6-13
Has God's Word Failed?

1. God's Word does not return empty, or does it?
2. A decisive answer
3. A theological explanation
4. A scriptural case study
5. What is the point this text is making?

The Sermon isn't the finish line for Word ministry, it's the starting line. It begins in the pulpit, but then it must continue through the life of the church as members echo God's Word back and forth to one another.

Ministry Opportunities

Welcome

We extend our cordial greetings to all who are visiting us today and hope that you will join us again for worship. We ask you to, please, sign the Fellowship Register as it is passed so that we may have a record of your visit. If you give us an address, we can send you more information about Hartsville PCA, or you can pick up any of the brochures from the information display in the entry hall.

Informational Lunch

Everyone is welcome to stay for Nancy Driggers' spaghetti casserole today after the Educational Hour to learn about the Jobs for Life ministry at HPC!

During lunch, Gordon Brown will introduce a range of opportunities for ministry, from one-time tasks to ongoing roles, and we will begin to lay the groundwork for classes beginning in Fall 2018. No commitments are required today, and we invite you to hear about this ministry whether or not you plan to participate.

The Week of January 28th

Vibrant Marriage Workshop

How the Gospel Makes Your Marriage Thrive

with Dr. Jim Newheiser

We all know that the gospel impacts every aspect of life. Christ is sovereign over everything, including marriage. It is easy to talk about how both spouses are sinners in need of grace, yet forgiven by Christ. But how does this gospel message actually change the daily experience of marriage? We hope that you will join us as we explore how repentance, faith, grace, love, and forgiveness are lived out in a vibrant way between spouses who love Christ and each other. Whether you are well-seasoned in life and ministry, or just starting out, we trust that our time together will further strengthen and bless your lives.
