

Sermon Notes

Psalm 119:1-8
The Way of Blessedness

Ministry Opportunities

Welcome

We extend our cordial greetings to all who are visiting us today and hope that you will join us again for worship. We ask you to, please, sign the Fellowship Register as it is passed so that we may have a record of your visit. If you give us an address, we can send you more information about Hartsville PCA, or you can pick up any of the brochures from the information display in the entry hall.

Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord!
Blessed are those who keep his testimonies,
who seek him with their whole heart,
who also do no wrong,
but walk in his ways!
You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently.
Oh that my ways may be steadfast
in keeping your statutes!
Then I shall not be put to shame,
having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.
I will praise you with an upright heart,
when I learn your righteous rules.[b]
I will keep your statutes;
do not utterly forsake me!

Psalm 119:1-8

The Sermon isn't the finish line for Word ministry, it's the starting line. It begins in the pulpit, but then it must continue through the life of the church as members echo God's Word back and forth to one another.

The Week of April 8th

Communion Preparation

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated during worship next Sunday morning. Because of the inestimable benefit we have in this sacrament and the great danger of eating and drinking in an unworthy manner, it is necessary that we come to it with knowledge, faith, repentance, love and with souls hungering and thirsting after Christ and His benefits. We are all encouraged to use all appointed means, public and private, depending upon God for the gracious preparation of the heart, according to His promise.
