Pastor: Almighty God, You who are full of mercy to your people, we confess that we are an unclean people, we have not trusted in your faithfulness to your promises and in your power to bring them about.
- Church: We have not followed when you called us to battle against sin.
Pastor: We have not been filled with zeal for you and your kingdom.
- Church: Instead, we have turned to our own way.
Pastor: We have followed the desires and plans of our own hearts.
- Church: We have cowered in fear of men rather than fearing you, and we have faithlessly broken the law of your covenant.
Pastor: Forgive us, O Lord, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, and help us in our unbelief. Strengthen us in our weakness by the Holy Spirit.
- Church: Fill us with zeal for you so that we might walk faithfully in the way of your covenant and follow wherever you lead us. To the glory of your holy name: Amen.

Evening Sermon

Luke 16:19-31

Mr. Richman & Lazarus

1. A contrast of lifestyles in this world

2. A contrast of lifestyles in the next world

3. The way of escape

The Sermon isn't the finish line for Word ministry; it's the starting line. Proclaiming Christ begins in the pulpit, but then it must continue through the life of the church as members echo God's Word back and forth to one another.
