

So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord.

BIT'S: I have the day off today (again!). This weekend I will be in the Collingwood area, visiting family. It's been a while since I have seen my grandkids. I think Christmas was the last time. So I'm really looking forward to see how much they've grown over the last few months!

But for me this is sort of a working holiday. You see, I'll be preaching at Collingwood CRC, my old stompin' grounds today. This is the church that 'sent' me into ministry. This is the place where I was encouraged to enter into the Lord's service. I was a deacon and later an elder there. You might say I 'cut my teeth' there a little bit. Collingwood put up with a lot of my early preaching! They treated me very graciously in my early ministry and helped Karen and I through some pretty trying times.

I haven't been back to preach (other than a few funerals) since my ordination in 2010, so this is a special occasion for me. So it's not really a day off, but it's a day where I get to gather again with old friends. Thank you all for the opportunity to be there again!

Thrive Faith Formation Tip - As you continue to celebrate Eastertide—50 days of practicing resurrection living—pick one area of your life in which you want to live more fully into resurrection hope. Perhaps it's in how you handle conflict, care for your body, or serve your community. Invite Jesus into that space, recognizing his risen presence.
