MIT'S BIT'S: Thank you!

Once again, I was amazed at God's goodness. Last Sunday, as Wayne handed Karen and I a gift for Pastor Appreciation Day, I was humbled once more. The truth is that I cannot do any of what I do on my own. I owe it all to God, and to Him placing people in my pathway that keep me on the right track.

If you were in church on Sunday, you would have heard about some of those people. Unfortunately there was a technical glitch and the service did not livestream (sorry about that!). Nevertheless, God is giving me what I need to do the work here and so much more. And many of you are actively walking with me in the journey, continuing to encourage and strengthen me as we go.

And I thank God every day for Karen. She is the constant rock, sounding board, encourager, and understander of what goes on in my life. We are walking this walk together, and each step gives us both a better look at what God is doing. And He's doing some amazing things! Thanks to you all for another wonderful year! May we continue to move forward in faith together!

FAMILY CIRCLE: Please continue to keep Tina Feddes in your prayers as she recovers from her accident. Pray for strength and complete healing for Tina. Continue to pray for all of our seniors, those who suffer illnesses, and those who are lonely or shut-in. May they feel God's presence in their lives and may He bring healing.

New on the Library Shelf: Good Gifts Come from God. Children's book.

Every day, God gives us good gifts to enjoy-family, friends, sunshine, hugs, smiles, and kind words. The greatest gift from God is sending his son, Jesus to die on the cross for our sins. We should always thank God for his good and perfect gifts. Part of the Bible verses to remember series, good gifts come from God helps preschoolers to memorize scripture and understand how it applies to their little lives today.

The Robe. Fiction.

Roman soldier Marcellus, who wins Jesus Christ's robe as a gambling prize after the crucifixion. After acquiring Christ's Robe, Marcellus then sets forth on a quest to find the truth about the Nazarene's garment — a quest that reaches to the very roots and heart of Christianity and is set against the vividly limned background of ancient Rome.

Here is a timeless story of adventure, faith, and romance, a tale of spiritual longing and ultimate redemption.

Grief Seminar: You are invited to a special seminar Exploring "Giving Grief Room" and the "Loneliness of Grief". The seminar is presented by Rev. Leanne Friesen over 2 Sessions. Join us Saturday, Nov 15 2025 10am – 1:30 pm at First Baptist Church: 99 Thomas Ave, Wallaceburg, ON. Who should attend: Individuals experiencing grief and loss, Those supporting grieving loved ones, and Anyone interested in learning more about grief and healing. The seminar is free. Register by calling First Baptist 5196276414 or email to Pastor Brian — horrobin@kent.net.

Together We Can End Global Hunger - In a world where there is more than enough food to feed everyone, yet more than 900 million people do not have enough to eat, let us work to end hunger for good. Next week, join World Renew to plant the hope of Christ with communities struggling with hunger. With your gifts, we can help provide the training and tools families need to journey away from hunger for the long haul. To learn more, go to: worldrenew.ca/worldhunger

Thrive Faith Formation Tip - Reformation Sunday - The Reformers emphasized that the Bible is our authority in matters of faith and life (sola scriptura). Ask someone whose faith you admire to share with you how God's Word helps guide their decisions and their view of the world. Brought to you by Thrive: crcna.org/Thrive
