

Steve Mason was raised in Phoenixville, PA in a pastor's home and felt called into ministry at the age of 12. In 1996 he graduated from Southeastern University with a degree in pastoral ministry. He married his college sweetheart Crystal a year later and they began their ministry as youth pastors in Florence, South Carolina; Naples, Florida; and Montgomery, Alabama where they served for 10 years.

While doing local youth ministry, the Masons saw exponential numeric and supernatural growth and helped raise over $180,000 for Speed The Light.

Steve currently serves as the District Youth Director for 340 churches for the Alabama District of Assemblies of God. Since 2007, Steve has led a generation into a passionate pursuit of Christ through camps, retreats, conferences, fine arts and mission trips. Steve has been used nationally to speak to students and leaders alike, calling them into a deeper walk with Jesus and cultivating a culture of giving.

With more than 25 years of experience in youth ministry, Steve and Crystal, along with their children Hannah, Colby, and Chase, have dedicated their lives to reaching the youth and leaders of this generation.
