A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR DOUG "Churches"

The 2nd Epistle to Timothy are the last God-breathed words of the Apostle of the Gentiles. The "center" of the letter is Chapter 2:23 through Chapter 3:5. Many people (both outside and inside the Church) opposing themselves and snared by the devil. Perilous times. Men being lovers of themselves and lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God, having a form of Godliness but denying the power of Godliness.

We can see a parallel in the early days of the history of Israel under Jewish kings. Consider 1 Samuel 13:8-14, 1 Samuel 15:13-23, and 1 Samuel 16:1-13 with 1 Corinthians 10:1-12 in mind.

Churches can be like Saul – people full of themselves and full of the world.

Churches can be what the Lord is looking for – people after His own heart.

Churches are like Jesse's sons – man looks on the material but God looks at the heart.
