*Nearby stood six stone water jars,
the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing,
each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.
Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water;”
so they filled them to the brim.*

Call To Worship

With steadfast love, God calls our names.

We long to be recognized and affirmed.

We are eager for a place of shelter and security.

Feast on the abundance of God's house.

Come to drink deeply from the fountain of life.

We are ready to hear the Word of God.

We want to be guided by eternal truth.

Hymn

O Worship the King, All Glorious Above

No. 41

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, in Jesus Christ you have taken our human existence, to redeem us from the brokenness of our sin. Yet we hide from your light, we resist your rule. We fail to proclaim the good news of your love. Even when we strive to fulfill your will, we fall to easily back into disobedience. Grant us your mercy. Do for us what we cannot do for ourselves; establish in us the righteousness you desire. Give us your Spirit, to lead us in the life of Jesus Christ, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

Silent Prayer of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Response

“Glory Be to the Father”

No. 579

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen*

Passing of the Peace

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you.

And also with you

Let us greet each other saying; ‘May the peace of Christ be with you.’

The Mission Committee is launching the SIP Church Better World Book Club for the congregation and invited friends. Our first book is The Book of Joy; Lasting Happiness in a Changing World by His Holiness the Dalai and Archbishop Tutu. We will convene for discussion at the church on Monday, February 25 at 3:00 p.m. Mark your calendars. The Book of Joy is the result of a 7-day meeting between the Dalai Lama and Desmond Tutu, two of the world's most influential spiritual leaders during which they discussed one of life's most important questions: how do we find joy despite suffering? You can purchase on Amazon for Kindle or in hardcover. And it is also available on Audible streaming. If you want to get it through the library, see Laura Dickerson.

loans that change lives

kiva.org is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that brings people together to give micro loans (usually $25 each) to people in order to help them help themselves. Here's an example of how it works:

Maria in Ecuador needs another dairy cow to increase her production and make more money with her dairy farm. However, things are tight so she doesn't have the money on hand to invest in a cow. Therefore, she applies for a loan through kiva.org where people like you can loan $25 (or more) to help give Maria the money to purchase the cow. Thanks to the loans from kiva.org, Maria can purchase the cow. Once the cow begins producing, Maria pays back the loan to kiva.org where the money you loaned goes back into your account. You can then either withdraw the money or re-loan it to another borrower.

Gospel Reading

The Message Version

Three days later a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine." "Woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so, and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

What Jesus did here in Cana of Galilee was the first of the signs through which he revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
