Pastor's Corner:

Pastoral Visitation: Alphabetically and by Request

Since June I have been visiting with some of you and it has been a wonderful time. I have met with some of you in your homes and in the Pastor's Office. I have met with some of you over a cup of coffee and pastry, or I have met with you over meals in your home or out at restaurants. I have been blessed by your stories and your commitment to Jesus Christ as expressed through your commitment to the First Baptist Church of Mount Holly.

I am in the office on Sunday, Monday and Thursday from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm and I usually make visits after 3:00 pm, but I can do them earlier also.

Right now, I have been conducting them alphabetically – I have done the As, the Bs and the Zs. However, if you want to meet with me earlier than the alphabet decrees, just send me an email (ghancock@eastern.edu) or call me at 732-615-7080.

Otherwise, when you receive my alphabetical invitation, send me a copy of options for visiting with you, at the church, at your home, or wherever works best for you. The better I know the congregation, the better I will be as your Pastor.

On Sunday evening, he gave me additional pages which cover the years 1987-2005. Once I got it I could not put it down until I finished it! It is great to hear what God has done with His beloved sons and daughters here at the First Baptist Church of Mount Holly. You are all a part of that continued divine heritage in this community. One of the historians that I have read prefaced his two-volume History of the Christian Church by stating that the students should be happy to read the history of those who have gone before us, while being aware that they themselves create the history for the next generations of believers. I am so excited to hear about the history that you make in the universal church of the Lord Jesus Christ as we visit together.
