Engage everyday moments in life to train your kids with spiritual truth.

During your morning routines:

Talk with your kids as you're waking them up, or at the breakfast table: "Giving can be a lot of fun, what are some ways you can give above and beyond every day? (ex: coloring a picture, baking, or helping someone to show you care) ... Giving with a God attitude makes it easier and fun to keep giving!"

While driving to or from school/activities:

Ask your kids as you're driving in the car: "What is this week's Big Answer?" Wait for them to say, "I can give more than expected." Say this several times in different silly voices.

During a mealtime:

Ask your child: "Jesus says you supposed to love your neighbor, who is your neighbor?... your neighbor is the person that lives right next door to you, it can also be anyone you come across during your day (ex: family, classmates, teachers, team, or the mailman). We can generously show God's love to all of them."

During bath time:

Consider playing your child's worship song this month's "Counting on God" by Northview Kids, on YouTube. Encourage them to sing and praise Jesus! Remind them that when we worship Jesus, we can thank Him for loving us so much.

During special moments with your child:

Share with your child a time you chose to be generous even when it was hard. Explain how God is very generous to us, it's why we can look all around and see beautiful people, places, and things. God cares and he asks us to be generous to others in like ways.

During your bedtime routine:

Pray with your child as you're going to bed, something like "Dear God, thank you for always wanting what's best for us and setting an example of how to be generous and love others. Remind us that we can give too..."

"Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think." Ephesians 3:20
