Engage everyday moments in life to train your kids with spiritual truth.

During your morning routines:

Talk with your kids as you're waking them up, or at the breakfast table: "What are some things we can give to God? (our time, our talents, our treasures). God doesn't want our gifts if we have the wrong attitude - He wants our very best and He wants us to give and do things joyfully. "

While driving to or from school/activities:

Ask your kids as you're driving in the car: "What is this week's Big Answer?" Wait for them to say, "I can give God my best." Say this several times in different silly voices.

During a mealtime:

Ask your child: "If you could bring only one item with you to a deserted island, what would it be?" "That's one of your favorite things - it would be tough to give that up or go without it. In our Bible story, we saw only one of the brothers give God their very best. We can learn and see that we should be like that brother and always give God our best too!"

During bath time:

Consider playing your child's worship song this month "Counting on God" by Northview Kids, on YouTube. Encourage them to sing and praise Jesus! Remind them that when we worship Jesus, we can thank Him for loving us so much.

During special moments with your child:

Share with your child gifts, skills, and talents that they are the good at. Spend time talking about ways they can use these gifts to glorify God and encourage them to do so.

During your bedtime routine:

Pray with your child as you're going to bed, something like "Dear God, thank you for being generous to us in so many ways and always giving us your best. Show us ways that we can be generous back to you and your people this week..."

"With God's power working in us, God can do much, much more than anything we can ask or imagine." Ephesians 3:20
