RACIAL TENSION AND BRING ABOUT UNITY IN OUR NATION

WHO: Miles McPherson, cultural leader, author, former NFL star, senior pastor and founder of Rock Church and Academy in San Diego, Calif.

WHAT: "A Race for Unity" simulcast
The recent increase in high profile, racially charged conflict has led well-meaning people to wonder what they can do to help alleviate racial tension in our churches, communities, and country. For one day, churches and organizations across the nation will open their doors, partnering with other churches, businesses and organizations in the community to be a gathering place for conversation, learning, and healing. Author and influential leader Miles McPherson will offer guidance on this issue by identifying the cultural influences that shape our attitudes on race, and explaining why we must honor the priceless value of God's image in all people. McPherson has first-hand knowledge of the importance of racial reconciliation.

WHERE: 8810 Lawndale Ave SW, Lakewood, WA

WHEN: Saturday, Sept. 15, 2018 from 9am - 11am

WHY: Miles McPherson has called for this simulcast to help identify racial "blind spots" that prevent us from honoring the image of God in others. He also wants to offer advice on how to identify and overcome racism in our hearts, and suggest practical ways to develop cross-cultural competency. McPherson will also provide ideas on how to initiate meaningful conversations on race within and beyond the walls of the church, and help attendees develop personal accountability in living lives that honor the image of God in others.
