

Hey Folks!!

What a great start to Extreme Nights!! We kicked things off with Color Night and I know it was hot out but we had a great time. This week we continue with the fun and move right along to Water Night. Don't forget we have another volleyball night this Sunday as well.

We still have some spots available for our Summer Camp. Be sure to checkout the info below for details and the link to register.

This week is Water Night!! Bring a towel, be ready to get wet and have some fun. The games we play are pretty active so most people just wear shorts and a t-shirt. Bathing suits may only be worn under t-shirt and shorts. Also, bring a change of clothes if you plan on going right from water night to Volleyball. We will allow people to change in the bathrooms.
