Apparently my granddaughters enjoy interrupting their Doc's Sunday mornings. Last year on July 24th our daughter was supposed to be admitted to the hospital on Sunday night for a scheduled delivery the next day. Our precious granddaughter had other ideas. Emily went to the hospital on Sunday morning, and Evelyn was born later that night. Fast forward eleven months and one day - June 25, 2017. Also a Sunday. Our daughter-in-law was supposed to go to the hospital that night for a scheduled delivery the next day. Once again our precious granddaughter had other ideas. Amanda went to the hospital in the wee hours of Sunday morning, and Agnes Blair Paul was born at 7:37 AM. I am one happy Doc!

Throughout the month of July our choir will be preparing for a very special musical program, a Gospel Family Reunion, on the evening of July 30th. If you love gospel music, and you've thought about singing in the choir, this would be a great time to join us. We will rehearse on July 9th and 16th after the morning worship service (we will have lunch in the fellowship hall). Church members, mark your calendars and plan to attend on the night of July 30th!

If all goes according to plan, our weekly 11:00 AM broadcast on WLSM, 107.1 - The Refuge is "live" this month. For many years, we have worked with a one-week taped delay, but our recent move to a video stream via Facebook Live will enable the radio station to capture and broadcast the audio portion of the live stream. As a result, you now have two options to participate in our worship services if you are unable to be here in person. In addition to listening live to the radio, you can watch us live or delayed at www.facebook.com/FirstBaptistLouisvilleMS

During our June business meeting, we had a lengthy and frank discussion about the future of the First Baptist Daycare. I won't try to recount the issues here, but I will update you on where we stand. The daycare committee came to the meeting prepared to recommend that we close our doors. At the last minute, the Winston Medical Center stepped in to ask us to consider a partnership with them in order to keep the daycare open. I have asked John Garner, Mark Donald, Ken Burton and Julie Blevins to join me in our discussions with WMC as we consider what a partnership might look like. Please pray for wisdom as we proceed.

As you can see from the financial figures on the left, we are continuing to face significant financial challenges. At last month's deacons meeting we discussed ways to bring next year's budget in line with current giving levels. But that is for next year. How do we proceed for 2017? Please pray about your giving to the Lord. Take time to consider how you spend your money. Have you been faithful in bringing your tithes and offerings to the Lord? Does your giving accurately reflect your gratitude to God for what he has done for you? Think about it. See you Sunday!

Rob
