

Quote of the Week

"The worker who daily subordinates his will to the will of Christ will...practice the virtues of Christ's character in all meekness and lowliness of mind; and this will give to those whom his ministration is supposed to benefit the precious freedom of the liberty of the children of God. They will be free to act out the grace bestowed upon them that all may understand precious privileges which the saints possess as members of the body of Christ."

- E.G. White, Christian Leadership, p. 35.1
