

Quote of the Week

"One of the criminals hanging beside Him pressed the message upon Him, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us" (Luke 23:39). Save self! Save self! Save self! As the Savior hung...utterly alone in the deep darkness of our shame, love and selfishness stood face to face in raging combat. In the final, expiring breath of Jesus, Calvary placed on record for all eternity the indisputable fact that God is infinitely selfless. The empty tomb proves the triumph of love over selfishness. This is the monumental achievement on display in the risen Christ."
