

Pastoral Word

April 2, 2020

Plainfield Christ Fellowship is invited to join with Pastor Thomas Young and the Travelers Rest Christ Fellowship congregation for a joint service this Saturday evening beginning at 6:30. You can join either through Zoom or by watching on Facebook. (More details coming soon) Other pastors and leaders may be participating as well. This is a good time to receive from the Lord as He speaks to the churches.

We are also excited to announce the start of new Online Bible Study Groups. Be expecting a personal invitation to join a group in the next day or two. Each group will have a host who will facilitate group study and fellowship centered around a book of the Bible. This won't be a teacher/student format, but rather a shared study experience. Beginning next week, each group will meet once a week for about an hour.

Our Sunday morning gathering will continue as (new) normal. We can celebrate Palm Sunday this week by coming together to praise God and celebrate His redemptive work in our lives. We begin @ 10 but you can come on-line earlier to engage in prayer and praise. See you soon!
