The two friends of Jesus were on their way to the town of Emmaus.

Some people in Jerusalem thought the Romans had stolen Jesus's body.

The man that joined Jesus's two friends was really Peter.

The two men on the road to Emmaus were too stuck in the moment to see God's bigger picture.

The two men walking to Emmaus invited the stranger to go to church with them.

When the stranger broke the bread at dinner, the two men saw that he was really Jesus!

Right after the two men recognized Jesus, He vanished into thin air.
