Kid #1: Hey (fill in name)! Are you going to be on the soccer team again this year? You were awesome last season!

Kid #2: (sad) I don't think I can. My mom won't be able to drive me to practice this year.

Kid #1: That kid wears the same sweater to school every day. Gross.

Kid #2: I know! I wonder if it ever gets washed. (Both kids make a disgusted face)

Kid #1: (while eating a cheeseburger) Man, these burgers are great!

Kid #2: (looking longingly at burger) I bet they are. I lost the lunch money my dad gave me.

Kid #1: Are you going to be able to come to my party Saturday?

Kid #2: I don't think so. My mom said I had to finish shoveling the snow out of my driveway before I go anywhere this weekend.

Kid #1: Sweet! I got a 100 on my fractions test! How about you?

Kid #2: (sad) I got a 46. My mom is going to be so mad. I just don't understand fractions like you do!

What to Do:

Copy on cardstock and cut the cards apart.
