A screw is loose on my sled so I can't play with my friends.

My apartment is on the third floor and I have a trunk full of groceries.

I just found out my mom and dad are getting a divorce.

The test is about to start, and my pencil is broken.

I dropped my lunch money somewhere on the bus.

My mom has to work late so she can't pick me up from school.

There is no clean water where I live.

I sit alone at lunch every day.

People say mean things about me.

I am freezing cold!

What to Do:

Make one copy per group and cut the cards apart. Keep the situation stack separate from the object (solutions) stack.
