“God, please help me to know what gifts you have put in me. I see that I am able to _____, and I like to _____. _____ . But please reveal to me what You have put in me and help me develop that gift in myself. And please reveal to _____ what you would like me to work on in my life and how they can help. I want to love and serve You with everything that I have and everything that I am, because of Jesus, amen.”

If you are receiving this page, it is an honor! The child who gave it to you values your opinion! Please think about him or her for a while. Pray that God will help you see what gifts He has put in this child and how He wants to develop them.

Please write what you discover below as a prayer for this amazing kid.

What to Do:
