A word from the pastor...

Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
Hebrews 12:1-2

The new year brings hope of a new beginning as we evaluate our current condition and make priorities about how to live during the coming year. After the tsunami of food that entered the church office in December – and my insistence on enjoying as much as possible (in order to not hurt anyone's feelings, of course) – I have prioritized my need to eat healthier in the coming weeks.

This is an excellent time to reevaluate our spiritual health, as well. Take time to look over the past weeks and months. Perhaps there are some areas you demonstrated maturity and discipline. How can you build on these successes in the coming year? Perhaps there are some areas that a weakness was revealed. What can you do in the new year to help you find victory and turn a weakness into a strength?

Our desire as believers is to bring glory to God. We want this to occur in our attitudes and actions as well as in our worship and service. The good news is that we do not enter the new year on our own, struggling individually to do the best we can in our own strength.

In the community of faith we find support and encouragement to follow Jesus. We find this support in the local church with our church family and we find it in the enduring testimony of the believers of ages past. You do not have to be on your own; many others cheer you on in your relationship with God.

Even better, Jesus Himself comes before us and after us, strengthening our faith as we follow Him. We keep our eyes on Him, who proved to be victorious over sin and death and sits at the place of authority. Jesus cares for you and wants you to have a close relationship with Him. As we set priorities for the new year, we do so with our eyes on Jesus, the one we worship.

Join me this year, not only in working on my physical health, but also in taking important steps to improve my spiritual health. I want to bring glory to God in every area of my life, but that means some things will have to change. Some areas will need to be improved; other areas will need to be eliminated. But I run this race with the cheers of believers and my eyes on Jesus. Let us run this race together.

Bro. Doug

CEO DAY

SUNDAY, JANUARY 7, 2007

Cooperative Emergency Outreach was formed by churches to provide emergency services to needy families and individuals in Washington County. These include food, prescription drugs, clothes and assistance with utilities, rent and transportation.

Efforts are also made to counsel clients toward self-reliance. Please bring your donations of non-perishable food, toiletries and diapers to the Information Center this coming Sunday, January 7. Cash is also needed to continue providing emergency help for the less fortunate in our community. There are volunteer positions open to help staff the CEO office Monday-Friday 1-3pm.
