To everyone in the church,

I want to express my thanks and appreciation for all you did for my brother, Weldon Coats, over the years that he was living there, and since he came back to Walnut Ridge. He was not forgotten. He had cards and letters from numerous people in the church.

I don't know you all, but one time I read a letter to him that he had received from one of you, which informed him of the death of someone and talked about Weldon always calling him after he had been visiting with us sisters over the holidays and he would always say, "I'm Home". And now this person is home. Weldon is finally "home with Jesus" and I know he has been made whole and has no more affliction.

May God bless all of you.

OUR MISSION IS TO LOVE GOD, LOVE FELLOW BELIEVERS, LOVE ALL PEOPLE.

VOLUME 53 · JANUARY 3, 2006 · NUMBER 1

FROM THE

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD,
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Jeremiah 29:11

What plans have you made for 2006? Perhaps you have scheduled a vacation or a special anniversary celebration. There may be a retirement or graduation planned for your future.

What does the future hold for you? We make plans for ourselves and work toward the fulfillment of our plans. But we know that with the best of plans and intentions, the future remains unknown and unpredictable. As we make all of our plans for the future, wisdom insists that we add the phrase, "The Lord willing" as the grand qualifier.

Some people recognize the uncertainty of the future, but with a sense of fear and dread. In their eyes, their plans may be curtailed by some unknown and unseen event, ruining their expectations for pleasure. God is envisioned as a kill-joy who interferes with their happiness.

God's people, however, live with the delighted expectation that while our future is unknown to us, it is planned by God Himself. What unfolds in our lives may bring us joy or sadness, but we walk with a confidence that God is with us and that in every circumstance He is at work. As the Bible says, "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). The unknown future brings trust in our omniscient God.

Today, trust in our loving Lord to provide for you in the coming year.
