

So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10

Douglas Falknor,
Pastor

God calls us to serve Him boldly and faithfully, growing in grace and truth, as we reach each person in our community and engage unreached people groups around the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ. This new year holds great promise and opportunity as we seek the Lord and follow Him. What opportunities await us this year?

This Sunday, January 17, our church family will vote on the motion recommended by our Phase II Committee to remodel the North Building (formerly the Goff-McNair Building), including connecting the buildings on the east end of the current alleyway, in order to provide additional space for children, Middle School students, youth, college students, and adults. We have discussed the recommendation, the cost, and the benefits for several weeks and months. Sunday morning we will set the course for where we believe God is leading us.

Also, this Sunday morning my sermon will help us know what the Bible teaches about the value of life so we will decide to treat all people with the value and dignity that God does. Each person, from the moment of conception until the final breath, is precious in the sight of God. As Christ followers, our belief in life needs to become a conviction and core principle. We will stand against abortion, against pornography, against child and spouse abuse, against anything that devalues life. And we will stand for life, for people struggling with shame, for people facing difficult decisions, for people fighting addictions, for God's love and compassion to be demonstrated to all people.

This Spring, I invite each person to be involved in a mission or ministry project. During Spring Break, our youth will be returning to Mission Arlington to take the gospel to children and families often overlooked by society. Our college students will be traveling to New Orleans for Mission Lab as they use construction teams and other service venues to share Christ. Here in Fayetteville we will be praying for specific neighborhoods and families one Saturday and, on the following Saturday, giving them a gospel witness with an invitation to join us Easter Sunday. Everyone can be involved somewhere.

During 2010, how will you serve God and take the good news of Jesus Christ to those who need to hear? The opportunities await us; let us be faithful.

Special Called Business Meeting
January 17 during Morning Worship
We will have a vote on the following motion:

The Phase 2 Committee recommends that authority be granted to the Phase 2 Committee to proceed with the construction and renovation of the former Goff-McNair properties with a connecting foyer at an estimated budgeted cost of $3,650,000. This authority will include initiating bids, granting bids, and overseeing construction. All costs, including but not limited to, construction costs, architectural fees, city permits, surveys, and furnishings, are included. A variance over 5% will require additional church approval.

We will need a commitment & a $50 deposit by January 27. This deposit is non-refundable. Payment plans are available. We only have 24 spots available - 12 girls & 12 boys. If you would like more information on this camp or would like to sign your child up, contact Lisa at 442-2387, Ex. 20 or email her at lwheat@fbcfayetteville.org.

FBC PLAYGROUND NEEDS

The Play Learn Committee has been able to purchase two large pieces of park-grade playground equipment for the FBC playground with the benefit of a matching grant for the more expensive of the two pieces.

While we are celebrating the opportunity to make this purchase, there are additional needs for the playground which will require additional funds. Our playground is outdated and in need of these improvements. We want to make you aware of this contribution opportunity. Tax-deductible gifts for this project should be designated: FBC Playground. Additional pieces, as well as fall-surface, will be determined by additional funds received.

Questions? Call Ellen Tidwell, 236-2999. Thanks so much for your support of this church ministry!
