MEET OUR STUDENT MINISTRY INTERN:

My name is Tim Moses and I am a sophomore at the University of Arkansas. I am from a small town in Texas called Newark, but just to make everything much easier; I am from Fort Worth.

I have been a Christ follower since I was 12. I have been coming to FBC Fayetteville since my freshman year and since the first day I came to visit, I knew this fellowship of believers was where God wanted me to grow and serve. I have been a member of the church since September of 2010. I am a part of the college group "Home Away From Home", where a family "adopts" a college student like me, and just is a godly figure during their times in college. My adoptive family is the Peters; Gary and Shannon Peters, along with their children Hudson, Grant, Amelia and Georgia.

I have always had a heart to serve and build relationships with teenagers, and I have a calling to ministry, and to be more specific, youth ministry. I would love to see God use me in a bunch of different ways. One of the main ways that I want God to use me is that I am that one guy who is just always there. Whether it is sporting events, trips, at church, band concerts or any other event where there will be youth involved. And since I recently was in their shoes, I think God can use me to help with the tough times that all teenagers go through. The years of being a teenager are like being on a roller coaster, full of highs and lows and loops, and I feel God can use me to be the one that is strapped in right next to them and show them that God is in control of every situation.

For children in grades 1-5

What Is Children's Ministry Day?

Mark on your calendars February 19, 2011, as a day to engage children in mission action and witnessing! The focus for Children's Ministry Day 2011 is Neighbor to Neighbor. What are the needs of the neighbors in your community?

From feeding hungry people to visiting shut-ins, girls and boys follow God's command to "put your love into action" (1 John 3:18). Church groups create projects that meet needs in their own communities.

This year we will have several opportunities to help children realize that they can make an impact on their communities as they get "on mission" with God. Watch your mail and the Voice for more information on this ministry opportunity.

Church family,

Thank you for your prayers for Silas. We felt them many times over when we were at the hospital. We are so blessed to have such a great church family. Please continue to pray for Silas and wisdom for Mauree and I and the doctors.
