Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her. Ephesians 5:25
[Older women] are to teach what is good, and so train the young women to love their husbands and children. Titus 2:3-4

February 14th is the day of love, when we shower our loved ones with roses and ribbons, flowers and fragrances, and whatever else our creative minds can imagine to express our emotions. I will be taking my wife to the NWA Healthy Marriages “Love and Laughter” event in Rogers. (Guys, there is still time to do something special. Don’t wait until Monday!) Marriage – and all the benefits that come with it! – was created by God Himself. He designed it for us for the same purpose He created us: to bring glory to His name. Our marriages, though God desires them to meet important needs in our lives, are intended to point to the love Jesus demonstrated for His bride, the church. When we love our spouses as God intends for us to love, we reveal the love that He has for us.

Our love will be sacrificial. Because of His love for us, Jesus left the glories of heaven and to bear our sins on the cross. The sacrifices you make for your spouse will be small in comparison, but the difference you make may be significant for the health of your marriage.

Our love will be unconditional. Jesus did not choose to die for our sins if we would do some great deed to deserve His love. In fact, we deserved condemnation. Yet, Jesus showered us with His love. Perhaps you do not believe your spouse has acted lovely toward you. Love him or her anyway. Let your love overcome every barrier.

Our love will be intentional. God demonstrated His love for us. Love is not fully expressed as an emotion, thought, or feeling. Love acts in behalf of others and is best received when it is purposefully expressed. Questions and fears dissipate when love embraces us with assurance and confidence. Storms of life are weathered with the knowledge of love for one another giving strength and peace.

When our marriages overflow with sacrificial, unconditional, and intentional love, we enjoy them to the fullest and God receives glory. This Valentine’s Day – and all year long – let the love of Christ fill your marriage that the world might know that we are His disciples.

Children's Ministry Day

neighbor to neighbor

Saturday, February 19

9:30 a.m.~12:00 p.m. in Mitchell Hall
for children in grades 1-5

What Is Children's Ministry Day?

Mark on your calendars February 19, 2011, as a day to engage children in mission action and witnessing! The focus for Children's Ministry Day 2011 is Neighbor to Neighbor. What are the needs of the neighbors in your community? From feeding hungry people to visiting shut-ins, girls and boys follow God's command to "put your love into action" (1 John 3:18). Church groups create projects that meet needs in their own communities. This year we will have several opportunities to help children realize that they can make an impact on their communities as they get "on mission" with God. Watch your mail and the Voice for more information on this ministry opportunity.
