

About The Love Dare—Bible Study based on the movie, FireProof

Unconditional love is eagerly promised at weddings, but rarely practiced in real life. As a result, romantic hopes are often replaced with disappointment in the home, but it doesn't have to stay that way.

The Love Dare, as featured in the new movie Fireproof, is a 40-day challenge for husbands and wives to understand and practice unconditional love. Whether your marriage is hanging by a thread or healthy and strong, The Love Dare is a journey devotional experience that will lead your heart back to truly loving your spouse while learning more about the design, nature, and source of true love.

Too many marriages end when someone says “I’ve fallen out of love with you” or “I don’t love you anymore.” In reality, such statements reveal a lack of understanding about the fundamental nature of true love.

Each day’s entry discusses a unique aspect of love, presents a specific “dare” to do for your spouse (some will be very easy, others very challenging), and gives you a journaling area to chart the progress that you will be making.

It's time to learn the keys to finding true intimacy and developing a dynamic marriage.

Take the dare!

We would like to honor and thank Travis and his clean-up crew for the wonderful and amazing work they did for us February 5, 2009. We are so thankful!

Sincerely,
 Robert & Marie Hall

I want to add my voice of thanks to Travis and the clean up crew who came to my house and cleaned the yard for me. It was so very emotional to see the cars & trucks that just kept coming with 15 men & women to help me. Thank you is not enough, but I hope that all of you know how much it means to me.

Another "Thank you" for your prayers, cards and words of encouragement at the death of my sister, Betty. May all of you be blessed for your concern. GOD is good!

Edith Griffin

Carlos and I greatly appreciated Travis and the men on the FBC Chainsaw Crew. FBC truly shows their Christian love towards others!

Thank you!
