Students also enjoyed a pancake breakfast as a special treat before Sunday School. Thanks to all the HAFH families who made this such a wonderful event!

National Merit Scholarship Finalist, Steven Doss, had his name misspelled in last week's Voice. We apologize for the error.

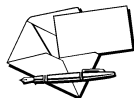

Dear Church Family,

We returned Saturday from Tuscaloosa after the sixth chemo treatment. The treatment went well. I return to Tuscaloosa on March 26 for a CT Scan and a MUGA test (this test checks the blood flow through my heart). If the CT Scan shows progress from the previous scan, the oncologist indicated there would probably be a seventh and eighth chemo treatment. The seventh treatment would take place on March 27. I fully expect to receive the two additional chemo treatments since there was such a large concentration of lymphoma prior to the beginning of treatments.

Thanks for all of your prayers. Please continue to pray for us.

Marion Williams

Did you know? Rodney and Mary Ella Ryan will celebrate their 60th Wedding Anniversary on March 12, 2008! Not only have they shared their lives together for many years, they have also shared their lives as members of First Baptist Church for 55 years! Both have served in many areas of the church, but the one you will be most familiar with are their smiling faces as they greet you at the northwest door on Sunday mornings! Please wish them a happy 60th wedding anniversary when you see them!

Our church family extends Christian love and sympathy to Randy and Christel Kirk and family on the loss of her grandmother, Hattie Phillips, of Owensboro, Kentucky on March 1, 2008.
