To-Go Food Box Change

Due to the overwhelming requests for to-go food boxes on Wednesday evenings, a change has been made in how they are provided. Beginning this Wednesday, to-go boxes will be prepared after everyone in attendance has been served if food is still available. At 5:45 p.m., to-go boxes will be prepared in the order they were requested (from the sign-up list). If you pay for a to-go box but food is not available to prepare it, you may request a refund that night or receive a credit for the following week. While we cannot predict an unusually large attendance on a given Wednesday, our goal is to serve every person every week. Thank you for your understanding of this change.
