SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

June 5

Jonathan Story has a long heritage with our church family. His grandfather, George Tharel, was our beloved church pianist for three and a half decades until his death in 1991. Jonathan's mother, Jan, grew up in our church, and she and her husband, John, were married here. Jonathan arrived on the scene in 1982, and he grew up in our church as well.

He was actively involved in our music ministry throughout his boyhood, later serving as associate pianist and organist until he graduated from Fayetteville High School. A student of Professor Jura Margulis at the U of A, Jonathan received both his Bachelor and Master degrees in piano performance. During his college years, he served as organist at FBC, Springdale, later taking the same position at Central United Methodist Church where he currently serves.

Dubbed "Fayetteville's Piano Man" by Northwest Arkansas Times, Jonathan is known for his versatility on the piano and organ. However, his skills as a musician do not exceed his Christian character and engaging personality. You will not want to miss this wonderful opportunity.

All concerts are at 3 PM • FREE ADMISSION

SYMPATHY

The church extends Christian love and sympathy to Bobby and Carolyn Paul and family on the loss of his father, John Paul, of Rockpoint, Arizona on May 19.

LETTERS

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for all the loving prayers, calls, visits, cards and many prayers during Dave's recent hospitalization. You indeed are wonderful to share His love.

Dave & Glo Falknor

Dear Church Family,

The day that my dad had longed for finally arrived, and he is now at home with our Lord! Thank you so much for your prayers and other expressions of love for me and my family. It is a wonderful thing to know and feel the prayers of Christian friends. Special thanks to Bro. Doug, and to Bro. Travis and Bro. Mike for traveling to Benton to attend the funeral.

In Christ,
Jim & Janey Lacy

Dear members of FBC Fayetteville,

The word "partner" is important to Loving Choices. You, through your gifts, are a partner in all we do. You may not know it, but you've done so much more than pay the utility bill-or even a salary.

When you gift a gift to this ministry you offer each of us-staff, board and volunteers-a healthy dose of encouragement. While the names of those who give are kept confidential, we are all uplifted to know that gifts are coming in and that there are more and more families supporting our life affirming ministry.

Your gift speaks volumes when the days are difficult, when we're tired, and when we struggle with how to reach a client whose heart is broken.

Thank you again for walking with us as hearts are being touched and lives are being saved.

With a grateful heart,
Jan Hixson
Director of Development
Loving Choices Pregnancy Centers
