

Play Learn School is hiring teachers for the 2008-2009 school year. If you might be interested in applying, please pick up an application in the church office or contact Carolyn Tanneberger at 442-3992 or 521-7760.

The apostles and the elders came together to look into this matter.

Acts 15:6

Imagine being in a church conference where the main speakers are Peter (walked on the water toward Jesus), Paul (changed by Jesus on the road to Damascus), James (the brother of Jesus), and several others that we read about in the pages of the New Testament. They gathered in Jerusalem to help solve problems of the expanding church and hear reports of how God was at work among the new – especially the non-Jewish – Christians around the world.

During their council meeting, they heard differing points of view but were united in their desire to be faithful to God and bring honor to His name. They dismissed the meeting with a greater sense of purpose and unity with increased effectiveness to start new churches throughout the Roman Empire. The results were joy and peace and encouragement.

Many of the great Southern Baptist leaders of this generation will gather in Indianapolis for the annual Southern Baptist Convention on June 8-11 to preach God's word, to sing His praise, and to report how He has been at work around the world. Of course, there will be some differing points of view (where two or more Baptist are gathered . . .)! But when we are united in our desire to be faithful to God and to bring glory to His name, God will be exalted.

Thank you for allowing my family and me to attend the Southern Baptist Convention each summer. Pray that Southern Baptists will dismiss our 2008 convention meetings with a greater unity and purpose to reach our nation and the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Pray that we will increase our effectiveness in evangelism and in starting new churches. Pray that our meetings will result in joy and peace and encouragement. Pray that through every report, sermon, testimony and song that the name of our Lord would be exalted.

The Women's Ministry Team will be leading a Ladies Bible Study on Wednesday night
