Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity! Psalm 133:1

I thoroughly enjoyed attending the Southern Baptist Pastors' Conference and the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in San Antonio, TX. Messengers from our church included Bill and Carol Brunner, Gerald and Anne Jones, and Lisa and me. My family also wrapped the conference and convention with several days of vacation, experiencing three days at SeaWorld and visits with several extended family members who live in Texas. Altogether, my family drove over 1900 miles! It was sooo good to get back home.

In my last article I encouraged you not to believe everything you read about the convention. But I learned that you did not read anything about it because almost nothing was reported about the meetings. This indicates the overall unity and positive nature of what Southern Baptists accomplished during this week. Themes of prayer, revival, evangelism, repentance, and humility echoed throughout the week. We have focused on the most important matters.

I will place in the library the three "bulletins" printed as guides for each day's activities during the convention and the 2007 Book of Reports given to each messenger as we registered. There is a wealth of information in these documents, and I encourage you to peruse them as you have interest.

Since there is so much information available, here is a very brief mention of some of the business meeting highlights. Frank Page was elected to serve a second year as president of the SBC. A formal definition of the Cooperative Program was adopted. The Baptist Faith and Message was reaffirmed as a sufficient guide of consensus for Southern Baptists. Eight resolutions were approved, including statements on the 150th anniversary of the Dred Scott decision, on hate crimes legislation, on global warming, on protecting children from abuse, and on personal and corporate repentance. The full body of these resolutions can be found in the bulletins or at www.sbc.net.

But the business, though important, is only a part of these gatherings. The greater joy is meeting with brothers and sisters from all across the United States and sharing together the greatness of God. International and North American missionaries inspired us with how they see God moving at home and around the world. For example, though specifics could not be given for security reasons, one of the leading areas of people trusting Jesus is in a war-torn area of the Middle East. Together we prayed, lifted our voices in song, humbled our hearts, and yielded to the preaching of God's Word.

Thank you for allowing me to attend this meeting. Let it be a resource to encourage us to unite with others as we take the gospel across the street and around the world.

We will also sing/ring in the morning worship of the Good News Church in Ekaterinburg and present a concert on Tuesday evening for a community thirty miles north of the city.

Please continue to pray, especially as we learn the Russian words to two of the songs we will be sharing.
