

Douglas Falknor

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Psalms 90:1-2

I confess that I can be a news junkie. When major world events occur, they can capture my attention and time as I read articles from different points of view to try and understand what is happening and why.

With the proliferation of the internet and our always connected world, new and world altering events seem to be happening continuously. New articles from many different people with a variety of perspectives are available all through the day - and night! We are bombarded by new and updated information on new and breaking stories all the time.

These events are truly worthy of our attention. With the continuing unrest in Egypt and Turkey, the paralysis of our own government, a legalized "redefinition" of marriage in some states, crash landings of airplanes loaded with hundreds of passengers, new warnings (both real and imagined) every week about climate changes, financial challenges, generational problems, energy scarcity, water scarcity, etc., we can become overwhelmed by the earthquake of change in our lifetime.

Moses experienced seismic change in his lifetime. Born into slavery yet raised in Egyptian riches, he was tormented by his personal comfort while his people struggled with oppression. He fled from home and lived as a shepherd. Then an encounter with God changed his direction and focus. Like never before, Moses learned dependence on God.

This is what we need to learn, too.

Our world has changed and will continue to change. Throughout our lives we will witness nations rising and falling, governments succeeding and failing, crises coming and going. Some of the changes will be in the news. Other changes will be in our own lives.

Through every event that shakes us and our world, God continues to be our dwelling place. He is powerful, creative, and eternal. God provides. God protects. God proves Himself worthy of our praise.

Call on the name of the Lord. Worship Him. Live for Him.

Bro. Doug

Infant Girl Clothes Needed

The Loving Choice Care Center is running extremely low on baby girl clothes in their boutique. Clothes are some of the items our clients can purchase with the "Mommy Bucks" they earn each week. There have been several baby girls born recently and the infant girl clothes selection has been wiped out.

Please, if you are able, bring donations of new or gently used infant girl clothes sizes newborn to 18 months only. The Loving Choice Boutiques is supplied with nothing but donations. They have lots of boy clothes. The donations can be dropped off at Loving Choices, or at the church Information Center.

The Williams Department Dinner and Fellowship will begin at

6:30 p.m.

(Not 6 p.m.) on Friday, July 12 in the Great Hall.

Can you knit? Crochet? Sew? Looking for a mission opportunity to use your crafting skills? Join with Jan Story's Sunday School Class and the Stash Busters Quilting group in making warm scarves and quilts to use to reach out with "a cup of water in Jesus' name." Don't have needed skills, but still want to help? Call Sydney Scarbrough (846-5889) or Becky Riggs (521-8362).

Our book for August is Now They Call Me Infidel: Why I Renounced Jihad for America, Israel, and the War On Terror by Nonie Darwish.

CEO Volunteers Needed

Over twenty years ago the founders of Cooperative Emergency Outreach established a way for local congregations to share the love of Christ with those in our community who found themselves in need with very few places to go for help.

First Baptist Fayetteville has been a vital part of this ministry from the very beginning. Many of our wonderful original volunteers are now in Heaven. I have offered to be the Board member representing our church and have been praying for others to join those of us who work at CEO.

This effort can be as little as one day a month and takes only a few hours. We need food room workers, computer operators, and interviewers.

If you are interested in learning more, please call me.
