Douglas Falknor,
Pastor

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.
Ephesians 2:10

692 people attended the Community Fall Festival Sunday afternoon!

Unbelievable!! Events like this occur because a faithful people believe that God calls us to reach our community with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

People of all ages volunteered to cook hotdogs and prepare the box lunches, to work with registration and security, to interact through games and pictures, and to serve with the set-up and tear down crews. This is not an easy event to pull off, but, with the plethora of willing hands pitching in to do the work, we see the crowds growing each year. Kudos to Lisa Wheat and her teams praying, planning, and executing an excellent ministry event.

Construction fencing surrounds our buildings as the work moves forward. Our regular routines of parking and getting to and from the buildings will require an extra measure of patience. If you see someone needing assistance finding a place to park or getting around the buildings, please offer to help them or get a message to me or one of the other pastors. I know we will face some logistical challenges, but these are exciting days as we see progress on our space needs.

Thank you for sending me to Jonesboro last Monday-Wednesday for the Annual Meeting of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. The annual meeting challenged and encouraged the hundreds of messengers in attendance as we heard positive reports of God's work around the state and enjoyed a beautiful spirit of unity.

Our cooperative work with Baptist churches across this state strengthens our work to make disciples in our Jerusalem and Judea. Funded through the Cooperative Program, we work together to provide training and resources for churches, homes for children in need of a safe place to live, camps for children and youth to hear about Jesus, chaplains for jails and prisons, so much more.

Whether the work is being done by one local congregation for a Community Fall Festival or a denomination of churches spread out across a state to proclaim the gospel, we discover time and again that there is strength and power in working together. Let us stay united as one people serving our great God as we take the message of the cross to each person.

Eight members of our University Department will represent our church in our partner city of Judah this December. We ask for your prayers as we prepare to take a message of hope to those who may not hear otherwise. The trip will include time on a university campus leading cultural exchange seminars, conversations with students, and also equipping and encouraging believers. Our hope is to be clear with our message so that many will hear and respond to the good news.

If you would like to help team members who are raising financial support we welcome that. Students are currently sending out support letters. If you would like to make a general donation to the trip, the best way to do that is to contact Josh Mauldin, who will give you specific instructions: jmauldin@fbcfayetteville.org, 442-2387 x16.

Community FALL FESTIVAL

Thank you to all who volunteered, donated candy, drinks, money & time, prayed and participated in our 19th annual Community Fall Festival. We were so blessed by such a beautiful day and an awesome turnout by members and visitors! We had 692 in attendance, and a lot of those people were visitors who do not have a church home.

Keep praying for the seeds that were planted yesterday and for the people who came that don't know the Lord. Pray for opportunities for us to witness and for them to respond. Thank you church family for having a heart to see people come to know the Lord and to be willing to do whatever it takes to share the gospel. It is always exciting to see what God can do when we allow ourselves to be used by Him for His honor and glory.

Rejoicing in His Goodness,
Lisa

An Irish Christmas

Keith and Kristyn Getty

December 12, 2010
6:00 pm

Leading the modern hymn movement for the past decade, the Gettys have demonstrated an amazing ability to successfully bridge the gap between the traditional and the contemporary. We sing their hymns regularly, including "In Christ Alone," the classic hymn they wrote with Stuart Townend.

Their skills as worship leaders exceed their talents as writers. You'll want to plan now to attend and bring someone with you!

This husband/wife team from Northern Ireland and their team of eight musicians will lead worship in both morning services on December 12. That evening the Sanctuary Choir will join them as they present a full concert at 6:00.

Leading the modern hymn movement for the past decade, the Gettys have

LETTERS TO THE CHURCH

We want to thank the entire church family for all the prayers and support during our adoption process and the generous financial help with our travel to Korea. Hudson has been home for a month and is doing wonderful! We truly appreciate all the love and warm thoughts!"

Love,
Jonathan, Valarie and Hudson Smith

Thank you,
What a wonderful church family.
Thank you for all your prayers, phone calls, cards, visits and food. I hope to be back in church soon.

Love,
Lorraine Moore
