BAPTIST MEN'S DAY!

Men and Boys Pancake Breakfast

8:00 a.m.

with

University of Arkansas Quarterback,

Jason Allen

FROM YOUR PASTOR

Our World Mission Offering is just a little over $2,000 short of reaching our $42,500 goal. The offering closes January 31, 1992. My hope is that if you have not yet given toward this worthy offering you will do so Sunday is Baptist Men's Day. Troy Smythe, Howard Wagner, and Fred Bourland will be sharing their testimony as to what God is doing in their lives. Other men will also be participating in the service. There will be a Men and Boy's Breakfast at 8:00 a.m. in fellowship hall. Jason Allen, Razorback football quarterback, will speak at the breakfast.

Some of our deacons have volunteered to pick up any boys that don't have a dad planning to come. Call the church office or Rick Tanneberger if your son wants to come. We will be glad to help.

I'll see you Sunday in Sunday School.

Love,
Preacher

Music Ministry

Now is the time to begin your ministry in the Music Ministry at First Baptist. I look over our congregation Sunday after Sunday and see many who I know are musicians, music readers and lovers of music. Why not join us? You are needed and wanted.

The Sanctuary Choir "Favorites" Concert is set for Sunday, May 3 at 6:00 p.m. Joining us will be the nationally acclaimed pianists, Nielson & Young. Duo pianist Steven Nielson and Ovid Young have been performing together for 18 years, inspiring congregations and concert halls all over the world. Put this date and event down now and don't miss it!
