From Your Pastor

The Service of Prayer and Affirmation Sunday night was very moving. I urge you to continue to pray for our country's leaders, our military personnel, and their families.

It was mentioned to me Sunday night that there are several in our church who experienced similar times during World War II, and that there are those who would be willing to give support to wives and other family members during these times. Let me know if you are interested.

I'll see you Sunday in Sunday School.

Love,
Preacher

The deadline for any information going in the Voice is
by 12:00 noon on Monday

First Baptist Church is cooperating with other local churches to offer help in the name of Jesus Christ. Food Pantry Day will still be observed on the first Sunday of each month. However, there will be some changes:

1. The list of needed foods change from month to month.
2. The food will still be gathered at church, but will be distributed through the CEO (Community Emergency Outreach).
3. Money may be given through the church to help CEO minister to those in need. Checks should be made out to First Baptist Church.

Music in Ministry

The Jubilee Chorale will be in concert this Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. This is an auditioned group from the Inspirational Singers, an all black choir at the University of Arkansas. I know many of you have heard this group and already know the blessings in store. The 25 voice choir sings about 20 concerts a year with a variety of music from spirituals to contemporary to traditional. DON'T MISS IT!

The College Choir, Rejoice, begins rehearsals this week. This choir is open to any college student (undergraduate or graduate). We meet on Wednesdays at 8:45 p.m. in the choir room. Come join us.

Have you been thinking about joining the Choir? Well, put some action behind the thought and do it. We have been blessed by some new growth in past months but let's not stop. As I look into the congregation week after week, I see many folks who should be in choir. What's your excuse? There is no perfect time to join, so just give in and come. Give God your talents and let Him use you.

Christian Sympathy is extended to Dorothea Jackson, Family and Friends in the recent death of her husband, Buford Jackson.
