From the Pastor's Pen

"Oh, the ladies, bless'em." Whoever originated that quote probably was not talking about Woman's Missionary Union, but it should be said, "bless 'em".

The ladies of this wonderful organization have meant so much for so long to the work of our Lord. I am pleased to say that W.M.U. is alive and well at FBC, Fayetteville. There are over 181 enrolled in 5 organizations. This includes pre-school, children, grade school, junior high, high school, and adults.

W.M.U. ladies, thank you for all you do in praying for missions, mission education and mission action.

If you are not a part of a W.M.U. group, there is one for you. Join up!!

I'll see you Sunday in Sunday School.

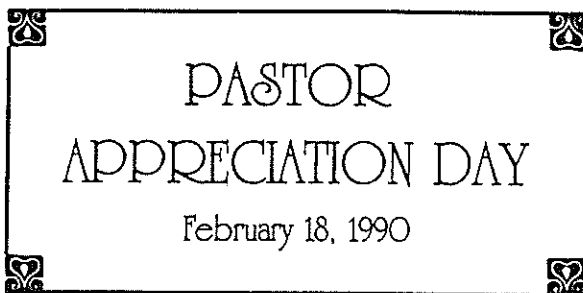

Love,
Preacher

Say Cheeeeeeeeeeeeeese!!

It's time again for the Church Pictorial Directory!

Pictures will be taken beginning March 3, 1990.

Everyone will be contacted. Each person/family will be given a free 10 x 13 portrait and a free directory, but only if you have your picture taken, so...everybody show up and say "Cheese!!"

The Business & Professional Women's Sunday School have given 12 Bibles for Sierra Baptist Chapel in honor of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Bradley, Rev. & Mrs. Homer Albright, Josephine Scaggs, and Judy Robertson.
