From Your Pastor

The work at the Home Mission Board of our Southern Baptist Convention is so varied it would be impossible for me to tell you about it in this brief space. I will tell you that we have home missionaries working from border to border and coast to coast witnessing for Jesus and ministering to the needs and hurts of our nation.

This next week join me and thousands of other Baptists in praying for our Home Missions work during the Week of Prayer.

Look for your prayer guide in the bulletin this Sunday to guide you in your personal devotions during the Week of Prayer.

God Bless you.

Love,
Preacher

My dear friends at First Baptist, I want to thank you for the kindness you've shown through your cards, letters and cassettes. And for the love and friendship you gave me during my years at the university.

I will always remember how welcome you made me feel, both then and now.

Your care and concern mean a lot to me, and I sincerely appreciate it.

Keep up the good work. Keep the home spirits high. And know that your thoughts and prayers are making one country boy's time over here a little more bearable.

Thank you very much,

Love,
Eddy Tiner
