Disaster Relief Training
Saturday, April 13

Are you interested in being involved in disaster relief efforts in Arkansas and across the US? Southern Baptist Disaster Relief is holding a training that will equip you to be ready to go when disaster strikes. At this particular training you will have the option to gain credentials in Assessment, Chainsaw, Communications, Feeding, Flood Recovery (formerly Mud-Out), Safety or Shower/Laundry. As the third-largest disaster response team in the nation, this network of state-based volunteer teams does more than just clean up; they bring the healing of Christ to those whose lives have been shattered.

You can register for the training by following this link. For more information on other ways you can get involved or to learn more about Disaster Relief, check out their website.
