From the Library Shelves:
Good suggestions for 'take-me-along' books for your summer vacation include the latest Anita Bryant book, "A New Day", and these Harold Bell Wright books you've probably been promising yourself: "The Shepherd of the Hills", "The Least of These My Brothers", and "The Calling of Dan Matthews". Another book set in the Ozark hill country is "These Were My Hills", by Marie Walston. Take at least one along to remind you of home.

MINISTRIES

From Your PASTOR

I hope many of you took advantage of the money management seminar this week led by Roger Clement and his wife. If there are those of you who would like some individual help, our own Scott Hendren is a trained Christian financial counselor. If interested, just contact Scott.

While I'm talking about Scott, let me encourage you to attend Discipleship Training the next four weeks as Scott leads a study based on the book Frog in the Kettle. This has nothing to do with the Kettle Restaurants you may have seen, but deals with the changes that are taking place in our culture and the impact they have on our church, and some things our church can do to minister to our community. The study will be worth your time.

Royce Ann and I will be back with you on August 16th.

Love,
Preacher

MUSIC IN MINISTRY

A word of appreciation to Jerry Newman for directing in my absence last Sunday. We are so blessed to have many competent musicians who can fill in wherever needed. Also, appreciation goes to Patsy Gathright and Wanda Freeman who do such a good job on the instruments when Rita and Jennie are out. We are blessed to have you all.

We are one week away from the "Sangin'" set for August 16. I hope you are not only planning to come, but are planning to bring neighbors and friends with you. DONT MISS IT!!!

YOUTH MINISTRY

We're Going to White Water!

We will leave on Saturday, August 22, for White Water in Branson, Missouri. The cost of the trip is $11.00 per person, not including meals. Sign up continues through Sunday.

Sierra Family Cookout was a Success!

On Wednesday, July 29th, our youth and youth workers held a free cookout for the families of Sierra Estates. We had a great time feeding a group of 60+ adults and children (not including our youth and workers). People sat around and talked, children played, and we got to offer a free meal to some folks in the name of Jesus. It was super!

The Family Thing

Last Sunday through Wednesday our Parent/Youth Conference went very well. We had an average attendance of 23 folks. Mark Meyers did a super job of sharing God's word about grace in the family, and Liz Kennedy helped us kick off the week with initiative games, designed to teach parents and youth the art of cooperation. It was a meaningful conference that met some real needs.
