Leaders Gain New Vision

Leaders of Fayetteville's First Baptist Church gained new vision this past Friday. There were 130 leaders at the Vision for Excellence Banquet. Gearl Spicer, Minister of Education and Church Administrator at Geyer Springs First Baptist Church, challenged the group to make their ministry come alive.

Visions expressed by leaders included:

- "... A place where anyone can come and feel a part of a caring family"
- "... Our church will become a training camp' for young parents"
- "... A thriving apartment ministry, meeting specific needs"
- "... To see our young people volunteering for full-time service"
- "... To see the balcony full again"

MINISTRIES

From Your PASTOR

Our "Vision for Excellence" dinner and meeting were excellent. I am excited about your enthusiasm as we head into the Fall. The next few weeks are very important as we work on our vision.

Sunday, I shared my vision for our church. I will do so again for those of you who were not here. my vision is that we, as a church, grow and excel as a church in the areas of worship, witnessing for Jesus, ministering to people, praying, and giving. I will be sharing more about this vision in the next few weeks.

You have given $9,530.00 to the Tommy Jones Memorial Home Offering. Our goal for this offering is $10,000.00. I hope we can reach this goal next Sunday.

Remember, I love you and will look for you in Sunday School next Sunday.

Love,
Preacher
