From Your Pastor

Singles are significant! A large number of adults in our church are single. They include university students, never-married, divorced, widows, and widowers. They are male and female. They are single parents rearing children; they are young, middle-aged, and seniors. They are like all of us and have needs. They also make a real contribution to First Baptist Church. They are a part of our family. I'm glad they are. Singles, you are significant!

I'll look for all of you next Sunday in Sunday School. Love,
Preacher

John-A-Choir is underway and we are still looking for more new members. We begin our Christmas music next Wednesday, September 11.

FILM SERIES BEGINS

James Dobson, "Turn Your Hearts Toward Home" begins this Sunday, September 8 at 4:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Childcare is provided.

MISSION OPPORTUNITY!

We don't have to go to Africa, Asia, or South America to be personally involved in Foreign Missions. In Fayetteville, we have many lonely families of foreign students, who need English tutoring and an American friend. Baptist Women sponsors International Friends to help meet some of these needs. We need help with teaching, planning activities, giving devotionals, and serving refreshments. Our first meeting is Friday, September 6, from 9:30 to 11:15 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Please call Marlene Venema, 442-4775, or Bea Allen, 442-6310 to indicate in what area you would like to serve.
