From the

Pastor's Pen

This Sunday will be an exciting day at First Baptist Church. The morning service will be the dedication service for our Memorial Tower. Following this service we will have a wonderful time together around the table. Bring plenty of food! There will be a number of University students that won't be able to bring food, but we do want them to stay.

I hope you will stay for lunch also.

I'll see you Sunday in Sunday School.

Love, Preacher

YOU HAD BETTER SIT DOWN FOR THIS ONE . . .

George Adams, Former Minister of Youth/University is getting married on November 12! His future wife is a nurse at the Naval Hospital on Guam (where George is Chaplain).

George wrote a letter to the staff this week announcing his plans and his last two lines were: "I never thought I would be excited about getting married, but God works in ways we don't understand sometimes."

Practical Helps for A Daily Quiet Time

- 1. Have it in the same place and at the same time everyday.
- 2. Spend a minimum of 15 minutes.
- Have a Bible, Pen, Paper with you (within 72 hours, we forget 95% of any impressions we receive. Remember, the shortest pencil is longer than the longest memory.)
- Make it a priority and do it at your best time, not during left over time.
- Come expectantly! You have an audience with the King of Kings.
- 6. Don't let dry days discourage vou!
- 7. Remember the three parts of a quiet time:
 - a. Talking with God
- b. Listening to God
- c. Meditating on His Word.
- 8. As you read a verse, is there any...
- ...example for me to follow? ...command for me to obey?
- ...error for me to avoid?
- ...sin for me to forsake?
- ...promise for me to claim? ...new thought about God Himself?
- 9. As you pray...

Adoration - reflect on His greatness, His majesty, and His sovereignty!

Confession - make sure every known sin is acknowledged to God and forsaken.

Thanksgiving - express your appreciation to God.

Supplication - ask for the specific needs of others and yourself.

10. Don't substitute religious activity at church for you own personal daily quiet time.
