MUSIC IN MINISTRY

How thankful I am for NEWSONG and the great job they did last Sunday evening. Ladies, your music was wonderful and impressive!

This Sunday night we begin a new format of worship in the evening service. A peek at this week shows 2 pianos, 2 soloists, testimonies, congregational music, focus on a FBC family, and teaching from our pastor. Dont miss this!

Begin praying for REWIVAL, October 27 with Erwin McManus, Director of Evangelism in Dallas, TX. I was in revival with Erwin last February and he is outstanding among evangelists. Noted for his work with inner city and ghetto neighborhoods, Erwin's presentation of the gospel is creative and inspiring. You will receive a tremendous blessing after hearing him.

FROM YOUR PASTOR

The Stewardship Committee of our church is busy preparing the Proposed Budget for 1992. If you would like to make a request or have a suggestion for the committee, you may do so by attending a meeting Sunday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. The Committee will meet with all interested people in the South end of Fellowship Hall at that time.
I'll look for you in Sunday School Sunday.
Love,
Pastor

FINAL SESSION OF
DOBSON SERIES
THIS SUNDAY

The Heritage: Four traditional values can help strengthen homes and assure family relationships. Dr. Dobson's powerful closing remarks give clear hope for tomorrow.
4:30 p.m. in Lower Auditorium

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING
PRESENTS:

The Hurried Family: A Video series by Tim Kimmel. Help for the hurried home. Practical counsel for restoring calmness and rest to your marriage, family, workplace and your relationship with God. Beginning on October 20.

Call Barrows: "... most of us find ourselves living in fast lane situations with hurried homes, schedules that are driving us crazy and demands that our children are making... Tim Kimmel has a wonderful way of presenting some basic characteristics and principles of attitudes based on Scripture that will help us."
