From Your Pastor

"Give thanks to the Lord for He is good." (Psalm 106:1). I am giving thanks today for the wonderful spirit that existed in our business meeting last Sunday night. The church took some very significant actions. The proposed 1993 budget was discussed. That budget will be voted Sunday, November 22nd, without discussion.

The proposed building plans and method of finance were discussed and also passed on to a Sunday morning vote by an 80% vote. I believe both of these actions are very important.

I hope you will be present Sunday to vote on these two items. I know change is often difficult, but I truly believe God has led us to this point, and we must go on.

In the past twelve years we have spent over one million dollars renovating and updating our buildings and acquiring property to allow expansion. We need to press on.

I'll look for you Sunday in Sunday School.
Love,
Preacher

Don't Be Fooled...

The rumor about Madalyn Murray O'Hair trying to get religious broadcasting off the airways is alive and still circulating. This rumor first appeared in 1975. It was a rumor then, and it still is. Don't waste your time or money circulating petitions. If you want to hear this from the Federal Communications Commission, you may call them at (202) 632-7000 and listen to their recorded message concerning RM2493. It is a toll call. But remember, you heard it here first.

Music in Ministry

Dear First Baptist Church,
After much prayer and consideration, I sense the Lord is leading my ministry to a new opportunity of service. It is the same God that led me here almost three years ago who is leading me to Calvary Baptist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas.

It is with mixed emotions that I leave this church, as many long-lasting relationships have been grown. God has continued to affirm my ministry here by the significant growth and development of the Music Program.

This resignation is effective December 20, 1992. I ask that you continue to pray for this transition concerning both me and this church.

Sincerely,
Jeff Bennett
