Thoughts from your Pastor

I am thankful to God for you. So many of you do so much and I am grateful. Teachers, greeters, deacons, committee members, pray-ers and list goes on.

Our Father has done and is doing so much. Let us also give thanks to Him. Psalm 103 is a great expression of thanksgiving. "Giving - in Christ's Spirit" is one way to say thanks also. Sunday is Commitment Sunday. It is also the day we will vote on the budget. The proposed budget was amended to raise the Youth section of the budget $500. This will also affect the percentage items a little.

Sunday is also the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions.

I'll look for you in Sunday School.

Love,
Preacher

Music in Ministry

Pagant Countdown! We are down to dress rehearsals for our '93 pagant. This year's efforts involves five choirs, two ensembles, a drama troupe, a covey of instrumentalists, a host of technical persons - everything but a partridge. These folks have given countless hours and still have much work ahead. Please do your part - continue to prayerfully support them and plan to physically be present with family, friends and neighbors. Use the tickets as a tangible reminder for those you invite. University/Career Ensemble: Remember this week's rehearsal will be Sunday evening, following the University Dinner/Devotion. Wednesday, December 1st Combined rehearsal of Music Makers I & II, Young Musicians, Youth Choir, University/Career Ensemble, Sanctuary Choir, and Handbells - 6:40 to 8:30 p.m.

Youth Ministry Thanksgiving

I want to take some time and say thank you to all those who've made our youth ministry effective this year. Thank you, Jim and Janey Lacy, for your faithfulness in the work and for all the extra hours you put in going to ball games and youth events. Thank you, Tedd and Teresa Trier, for your teaching and involvement in the lives of our high schoolers. Thank you, Gordon and Mary Briggs, for your willingness to serve, and for all the great food you've prepared this year. Thank you, Bruce Jones, for volunteering to work with our 7th graders. Thank you for the great example you set. Thank you, Cliff and Laura Grisham, for the work you are doing with our 10th graders. You've made an input in their lives. Thank you, David (Crazy Larry) and Rita Savage, for your work with the youth choir. We struggled for so long in this area until you two came along. You're doing a super job! Thank you, Donna Hall, for preparing the pizzas for choir snack. It is an important ministry and one which few would do. Thank you for your willingness. Thank you, Laura Dalton, for working with our Acteens and helping prepare them for a life of service and ministry. Thank you, Scott and June Hendren, and Mark and Margueta DeHerdner. Though you serve in areas outside of youth ministry now, your years of service and giving in youth ministry have accomplished much for Jesus. But most of all, thank you Jesus, for caring enough to buy us back for you. May we all learn that to love God and to love one another is our task and calling.
