From Your Pastor

I am thrilled by your response yesterday [Sunday] when you approved the budget for 1993 and voted to proceed with plans for the remodeling and the new building and fund raising. The vote, by ballot, on proceeding with the building plans was just over 81%. That is a good strong vote. Praise the Lord!!

A part of my prayer for you is that those who did not vote to proceed will join the rest of us in this effort that we may proceed with unity in this vital work God has given us to do.

I hope you will pause to give thanks to the Lord this week for His love for you.

I'll look for you Sunday in Sunday School as we begin the week of prayer for Foreign Missions.

Love,
Preacher

Youth Ministry

Our On Location for November was a Thanksgiving progressive dinner. We went to the Hendren's, the Lamle's and to Fellowship Hall. We had 32 people who ate and traveled. Thank you to Scott and June Hendren for preparing the salads, to Gordon and Mary Briggs and Janey Lacy for preparing the main course, and to Carla Lamle for preparing the desserts. Also, thanks to Jim Lacy for helping with transportation.

Youth Sunday School Up 20%

Our youth Sunday School attendance continues to grow. For the first twenty-one weeks of our new Sunday School year the youth attendance is up twenty percent over last year. Congratulations to our youth staff, and to our young people who have allowed God to work through them to make it happen.

Kris
