From Your Pastor

December is an exciting time. It is one of the busiest months of the year. We certainly have a lot planned here at First Baptist, Fayetteville. Sunday begins the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. It also kicks off our World Mission Offering. Bill and LaVeta Sergeant, missionaries to Taiwan, are our guests Sunday. Bill will speak Sunday morning in the morning worship, and LaVeta will speak in the evening following the World Mission's banquet.

Please plan on being present for both services. I'll see you in Sunday School.

Love,
Preacher

'Tis The Season

(a pageant of music and drama)

Saturday, December 15 - 7:00 p.m.
and
Sunday, December 16 - 7:00 p.m.

Christmas is the best time of year and we want the season to be a special one at First Baptist. Our pageant, "Tis The Season" is a concentrated effort to share the meaning of Christmas through music and drama. I hope you are praying for and planning to attend this ministry through music. It is my desire that every church member see "Tis The Season". Free tickets for both nights are available from any choir member or the church office.

YOUTH UPDATE

We're taking a group of over 30 youth and sponsors to the DeGarmo & Key Concert in Tulsa this Friday, November 30th. DeGarmo & Key are one of the top contemporary Christian bands in America. They are also very committed to reaching young people for Jesus Christ. Over the last 5 to 6 years over 30,000 young people have made a decision for Christ during the invitation time at the end of the concert. Please be in prayer for our young people that they will hear and respond to God's call.
